NAMES.

A.

G. Ayr Oe.

L. Agnus Castus.

I. Agno Casto.

G. Schalts mustem.

F. Ametine.

S. Gattilo Casto.

D. Kruytboom.

THE CHAST TREE.

PLACE.

This is a Native of Naples and Sicily, it grows with us.

DESCRIPTION.

This makes no large Tree, The Branches are Whitish, with a large Pith; The Bark light Gre hairs. The Leaves 3. are a Deep Willow green. the backs they are a very white Willow. Sometimes Leaves upon one footstalk. The Cup 2. is short d pointed Jaggs. cover'd with a short Grey Cotton. Tube divided into five half round Scollops, of wh much the biggest. There are four Chives 4. white are, which Join to the upper part of the Tube 5. are of a Deep Red. The Seed Vessel 7. in the divided top, with the Lower part white which Sta of a round Light green Seed Vessel.

VIRTUES.

'Tis accounted Warming and Drying.

T. Sheldrake delin.